The Celebrant says to the people

The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

The Collect of the Day

O Lord, mercifully receive the prayers of your people who call upon you, and grant that they may know and understand what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to accomplish them; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Please be seated.

The First Lesson | Amos 7:7-15

This is what the LORD GOD showed me: the LORD was standing beside a wall built with a plumb line, with a plumb line in his hand. And the Lord said to me, "Amos, what do you see?" And I said, "A plumb line." Then the Lord said, "See, I am setting a plumb line in the midst of my people Israel; I will never again pass them by; the high places of Isaac shall be made desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste, and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword." Then Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, sent to King Jeroboam of Israel, saying, "Amos has conspired against you in the very center of the house of Israel; the land is not able to bear all his words. For thus Amos has said, 'Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel must go into exile away from his land.'" And Amaziah said to Amos, "O seer, go, flee away to the land of Judah, earn your bread there, and prophesy there; but never again prophesy at Bethel, for it is the king's sanctuary, and it is a temple of the kingdom." Then Amos answered Amaziah, "I am no prophet, nor a prophet's son; but I am a herdsman, and a dresser of sycamore trees, and the LORD took me from following the flock, and the LORD said to me, 'Go, prophesy to my people Israel.'"

Psalm 85:8-13 | BCP page 709

- 8 I will listen to what the LORD God is saying, *
for he is speaking peace to his faithful people and to those who turn their hearts to him.
- 9 Truly, his salvation is very near to those who fear him, *
that his glory may dwell in our land.
- 10 Mercy and truth have met together; *
righteousness and peace have kissed each other.
- 11 Truth shall spring up from the earth, *
and righteousness shall look down from heaven.
- 12 The LORD will indeed grant prosperity, *
and our land will yield its increase.
- 13 Righteousness shall go before him, *
and peace shall be a pathway for his feet.

The Second Lesson | Ephesians 1:3-14

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, just as he chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before him in love. He destined us for adoption as his children through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of his glorious grace that he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved. In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace that he lavished on us. With all wisdom and insight he has made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure that he set forth in Christ, as a plan for the fullness of time, to gather up all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth. In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

The Gospel | Mark 6:14-29

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

King Herod heard of the deeds of power, for Jesus' name had become known. Some were saying, "John the baptizer has been raised from the dead; and for this reason these powers are at work in him." But others said, "It is Elijah." And others said, "It is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old." But when Herod heard of it, he said, "John, whom I beheaded, has been raised." For Herod himself had sent men who arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, because Herod had married her. For John had been telling Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife." And Herodias had a grudge against him, and wanted to kill him. But she could not, for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he protected him. When he heard him, he was greatly perplexed; and yet he liked to listen to him. But an opportunity came when Herod on his birthday gave a banquet for his courtiers and officers and for the leaders of Galilee. When his daughter Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests; and the king said to the girl, "Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will give it." And he solemnly swore to her, "Whatever you ask me, I will give you, even half of my kingdom." She went out and said to her mother, "What should I ask for?" She replied, "The head of John the baptizer." Immediately she rushed back to the king and requested, "I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter." The king was deeply grieved; yet out of regard for his oaths and for the guests, he did not want to refuse her. Immediately the king sent a soldier of the guard with orders to bring John's head. He went and beheaded him in the prison, brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl. Then the girl gave it to her mother. When his disciples heard about it, they came and took his body, and laid it in a tomb.

The Sermon | The Rev. Chip Broadfoot

Please be seated.

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People | Form III, BCP page 387

The Leader and People pray responsively.

Father, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;

That we all may be one.

Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;

That your Name may be glorified by all people.

We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons;

That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;

That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;

That our works may find favor in your sight.

Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;

That they may be delivered from their distress.

Give to the departed eternal rest.

Let light perpetual shine upon them.

We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;

May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

Silence. The People may add their own petitions.

The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect.

Confession and Absolution | BCP page 360

Celebrant

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Absolution

The Peace

The Celebrant says to the people:

Offertory Anthem

“I’m Trusting You”

VBS Kids

Wherever you lead me, I’m gonna follow. I’m trusting you, God. You are good!

Life will get crazy, wild and amazing. I’m trusting you, God. You are good!

I wanna live each day like anything can happen. Can’t hardly wait to see what’s next.

I wanna face this world with wonder and excitement, Face every challenge, every test.

Walk through the valley. Climb mountains high. Wherever we go Lord, You are good!

Can’t hold me back now. I’m gonna fly. Wherever we go Lord, You are good!

The Celebrant says

The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Then, facing the Holy Table, the Celebrant proceeds

God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.

Glory to you for ever and ever.

At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.

By your will they were created and have their being.

From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.

Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.

Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.

By his blood, he reconciled us. By his wounds, we are healed.

And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

Children are invited to join the clergy at the altar during the following prayers.

The Celebrant continues

And so, Father, we who have been redeemed by him, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,
We celebrate his death and resurrection, as we await the day of his coming.

Lord God of our Fathers: God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Accept these prayers and praises, Father, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Please pray together in unison.

St. David’s Summer Singers

*We the Lord’s people, heart and voice uniting,
Praise him who called us out of darkness,
Light and truth revealing. Bring we now before Him
All our gladness and joy.*

*O God, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
Trinity blessed, heav’nly light, the source of our salvation.
Shine forth in our living
Now and ever. Amen.*

We welcome you to receive communion at the altar. An usher will guide you forward at the appropriate time. If you prefer a gluten free wafer, please let the minister know. If you would like to come forward, but not receive communion, please cross your arms over your chest in the form of an “X” and the minister will offer a prayer of blessing.

Please notify an usher if you or a family member desire that the Sacrament be brought to you in the pew rather than at the altar rail.

When present, Eucharistic Visitors are sent forth to bring the Bread and Wine of Communion from the Altar to those who for illness or some other reason could not join us for the service today. Please contact the pastoral care office for more information: chip@stdavidchurch.org.

Please kneel, if able, and pray together in unison.

Please stand, if able.

Eucharist Visitors

Celebrant We send you forth bearing these gifts, that those to whom you go may share with us in the Communion of Christ's Body and Blood.

People We who are many are one body, because we all share one Bread, one Cup.

The Postcommunion Prayer | BCP page 365

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

SERVE

with us St. David's

As we walk in love together and grow deeper in faith, we are reminded of the importance of service to others. We invite you to engage with the various upcoming service opportunities within the church and in the community around us. Please go to www.stdavidchurch.org for more information or to sign up for any of these opportunities.

Welcome Ministry, Flower Guild and more: St.

David's is seeking volunteers to help some of our Worship Support and Administrative ministries. We currently have the opportunities for Flower Guild, for Greeters with our Welcome Ministry, and more!

NFCC Back to School Collection: LAST WEEK!

Please check out the Backpack Tags in the mailbox hallway. Take one (or more) and bring those much needed supplies by July 19th. Drop off the items in the collection baskets in the mailbox hallway. The St. David's Youth will deliver the new backpacks and school supplies in July. Thank you, St. David's, for Being a Better Neighbor and helping children get off to a good start in the new school year!

Path To Shine Mentorship – What Neighborly

Looks Like. Mentoring a child is one of the most neighborly things St. David's does. Every Wednesday during the school year, from 2:30-5:00 p.m. our Path to Shine mentors meet with kids from our next door neighbor, Mimosa Elementary. Together, we eat and play and read and learn. Each child is matched with the same mentor all year, so a real bond forms and real progress gets made. Many of our kids have been with us for years and each of them is precious to us. We're always seeking new full-time mentors, substitute mentors, and snack providers. If God is calling you to be a better neighbor and you want an experience that's fun as well as meaningful, please contact Patty Ormsby, talktopao@comcast.net.

LifeSouth Blood Drive: Sunday, July 21, 8 a.m.-1:00 p.m. God loves a Blood Donor. The LifeSouth bloodmobile will be at St. David's on July 21. Blood is a precious and scarce resource, a single unit of blood can save 3 lives. Hospitals are always in short supply of this crucial asset. Be a Better Neighbor and help save a life. Reserve your donation time with LifeSouth using this QR code.

Help us find rental properties:

During this unprecedented housing crisis, some parishioners and many neighbors have looked for assistance finding houses, basement apartments, mother-in-law suites or other living spaces to rent. Do you or does someone you know have living space to rent? Please contact Fr. Remington, to let him know: RSlone@stdavidchurch.org.

Drake House 20th annual Miss Mary's Ice Cream

Crankin'! Sunday, August 25, 2:00-4:00 p.m., Roswell United Methodist Church. Ice Cream Donations Needed! As part of St. David's mission to "Be A Better Neighbor," we are sponsoring a tent at the Drake House's 20th annual Miss Mary's Crankin' Ice Cream event. We need to donate 12 gallons of HOMEMADE ice cream that will be handed out on the day of the event to attendees. Please bring your 1 gallon of homemade ice cream to St. David's by Sunday August 11. If you do not have an ice cream maker you may borrow one donated to the church - just call the office (it is stored in Jeffords Hall). There are also lots of non ice cream making machine recipes found online. Please sign up to donate ice cream using the link found on St. David's website, www.stdavidchurch.org. Questions: contact Jennifer Rust, jrustlahood@gmail.com.

Men's Pub Night: Mondays at 7:00 p.m., Mac McGee's

Irish Pub on Canton Street. Men of St. David's, do you have a "Third Place"—a gathering spot separate from home and work, where you can unwind, such as a favorite coffee house, pub, or similar venue? Men's Pub Night meets every Monday at 7:00 p.m. at Mac McGee's on Canton Street to give you a place to connect, unwind, and join in for an informal evening of fellowship, redemptive conversation, your favorite beverage, and an optional meal. Parking is available at City Hall and Roswell UMC off Magnolia Street. For more information, contact Jonathan Golden at jonathan@drinkcoffeedogood.com or 678-469-8255, or Tyler Williams at 404-966-1281.

Connections Café: July 21st, 8:00 a.m. and 9:15 a.m., St.

Gabriel Room. New to St. David's? Have questions? Join us at Connections Café at 8:00 a.m. and 9:15 a.m. in the St. Gabriel Room (beside Grace Parish Hall). Visitors and Newcomers to St. David's are invited to Connections Café to ask questions and learn more about St. David's. Please come to whichever session works for your schedule!
